PRESS PORCH.

BY HEATON & ARMS,

127 Thames Street.

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 21, 1850.

☞ Our readers are familiar with the villainous and cowardly attack which was recently made by Edwin Forrest upon N. P. Willis, growing out of the unfortunate difficulties between Mr. Forrest and his wife, and the part which Willis took in behalf of the wife. The course which Forrest has seen fit to pursue, during the last two years, both in regard to his professional career and also in his domestic affairs, has been ordinarily and vulgar in the extreme; he entirely disregards all laws, and when he thinks himself aggrieved, he takes the law into his own hands, and seeks for vengeance in his own chosen way.—That Forrest is a bully and a blackguard, no one will question, for his course has been such as to lead every one to this conclusion. No one ever doubted but that he was the main cause of the disgraceful riot at the Astor Place Opera House, a year ago, in consequence of his jealousy of Macready. His subsequent abandonment of his wife, and his brutal treatment to her, have all stamped him forever in the estimation of all decent persons.

Now he has thought proper to make an assassin's attack, with a dungeons weapon, attended by his friends, upon Willis, who was unarmed and unattended, and at a time when Willis was not expecting such an attack. We trust that the law will be measured out to him to its fullest extent, and that he will be made feel that the law will inevitably restrain him in his rowdyism.

☞ By reference to another column it will be seen that Park Benjamin, Esq., is to favor our citizens and those who are visiting here, with a lecture next Tuesday evening, at the new Hall of the Bellevue House, on "Music and Musical Entertainments." Mr. Benjamin is a gentleman thoroughly and favorably known here last winter, by the highly popular and entertaining course of lectures which he delivered at that time; and we are very certain that our citizens will avail themselves of this opportunity to listen to this lecture, which is one of the author's best, being well conceived and admirably executed. Those who are fond of Music will certainly desire to listen to the views of so excellent a Musical critic; and those who have no partiality for music, or are otherwise engaged, ought to be gratified.

We have every reason to believe that there will be a large audience to hear this lecture, and to view the new and splendid Hall, which will be opened to the public for the first time that evening.

Those who intend to be present, will confer a favor on Mr. Benjamin and each other, by procuring their tickets at the places where they are advertised for sale, in order to prevent delay and confusion at the door. We trust that this suggestion will be heeded.

☞ My correspondent in another column, who will be seen that Dr. Julius Samson, a Homœopathic Physician from Boston, has permanently established himself in this town, for the purpose of practising his profession. This system has become highly popular of late years, and is rapidly on the increase in gaining the favor of many families. We have no physician of this kind here, and as Dr. Samson comes well recommended as a gentleman of merit and good professional standing, we have no doubt he will be liberally patronized, particularly at this season of the year, when the town is so full of strangers.—We sincerely commend Dr. Samson to the attention of those who are favorable to this system of Medical practice.

☞ Mr. Allen has opened about three quarters of the Stock for the Telegraph to Fall River; if a few more of our citizens will add their names to the list, the whole amount can be obtained to-day. Now that the work is so nearly completed, we really trust that a little energy will be displayed, so that the town may have the benefit of this wonder-working machine. We hope to be able to announce, to-morrow morning, that the Newport Telegraph will be in working operation to four weeks.

Lovers.—If you must your heart freeze, your captive break, in your progress never rise, that attracts the attention of the multitude. They look beyond dress. It is your character they study. If you are intelligent and loyal in your affections—cultivate it—you are as beautiful as an angel, you have no fear for them. It is the true loveliness of your nature that wins and continues to rule the affections of the heart. Young women rarely look at this. Labor to improve their outward looks, while they bestow not a thought on their minds. Gifts may be worthy presents and so may a way to earn them; but the wise and substantial are never caught by such traps. Be modest, be your dress ever so pleasant and your manners engaging, and though you may not be courted by the fop and the fool, be sure good and worthy men will love to linger in your footsteps.

Temperance.—The N. Y. State Colonization Society has resolved, in view of the great progress in Liberia, and the number of applications for a passage thither, to furnish a good vessel for expedition of July 1st, by the Liberia Packet; and to forward about forty emigrants the purchase of Gallinas river and territory, the best and most victorious for slave traders.

John C. Calhoun.—The Legislature of South Carolina has, by joint resolution, called on the Hon. George Eustice, Chief Justice of the State of Louisiana, to deliver an eulogy on the late John C. Calhoun. Judge Eustis has accepted the invitation, and when his address is prepared, the period and place of its delivery will be made known.

☞ Hon. Caleb Cushing, of Newburyport, Mass., is to deliver a Fourth of July Oration, on which day the corner stone of a new town hall is to be laid, with much ceremony and display.

☞ We learn that James Coggeshall, Esq., of New York, had his pocket-book stolen from his pocket at the Fall River Depot, Tuesday; it contained $1,300 in notes, and $130 in money. He did not recover it.

Peaches.—It is said that the peach crop will be immense this season. The dealers in this delicious article are down in the mouth at the prospect of having a heavy crop on hand. To meet this difficulty some of the peach men in the vicinity of the canal 'fits are erecting very large and extensive drying sheds, calculated to cure 50 bushels at a time. The luxuries of peaches may therefore solicitate themselves on the prospects of abundance, if the dealers are a little fearful of their profits. The quality of the fruit is, of course, likely to suffer from excessive drying of the tree.—Trenton State Gaz.

Good Advice.—Never interfere with a man and his wife when they are fighting. A friend of ours was woke from his sleep and heard the voice of his landlady shrieking "Murder! murder!!" He rushed to the spot whence the sound issued and found the woman prostrate on the floor.—Impulsively he tackled with the man and threw him down. The woman seeing the new state of things seized a candle-stick and struck her deliverer a blow on the bridge of his nose that blackened both of his eyes, she screaming at the top of her voice, "Villain! do you want to murder my dear husband?" Our friend says that in future, he shall let them fight it out.

Ladies Riding with the Indians.—A late letter from a Californian in giving an account of their progress over the Isthmus, says, "Two fine ladies and six children all had to cross on. The ladies rode their horses man-fashion, while the children were carried on the backs of natives; and all came through in safety. Mrs. M.'s horse fell but she was prepared for him and gave a spring over his head and landed safe on terra firma. Mrs. N.'s horse also fell down but she was prepared, and hung on to the mouth of the saddle. As the ladies passed through town, the whole company cheered them.

Pronouncing.—A lazy boy out in Indiana spells Andrew Jackson thus—Aen Jaun.

BY TELEGRAPH.

CONGRESS.

Washington, Wednesday, June 19.

Senate.—Messrs. Webster and Clay favored the principle, but objected to the form, of the amendment of Mr. Underwood.

Mr. Rusk strongly opposed it. He entertained no doubts of the title of Texas. He thought it was foolhardiness to dispute it, and he was unwilling it should go before the Supreme Court.

Mr. Badger replied in favor of the amendment.

Messrs. Mason and Butler spoke against it.

Mr. Underwood stated that it should be withdrawn if generally desired.

Mr. Foote hoped so, and suggested that the Senate should go into executive session.

Mr. Dayton laid on the table papers as to the transfer of funds in Texas.

Mr. Berrien laid several amendments on the table.

Mr. Pearce sustained Mr. Underwood's amendment.

Mr. Rusk replied.

Mr. Foote urged its withdrawal.

Mr. Clay preferred to let the bill pass without the amendments; indeed he deeply regretted all these amendments; he felt almost ready to give up; the difficulties were enough to discourage the strongest hearts. He sincerely hoped the final vote might be put by next week. He regretted the existence of the amendments, as tending to thwart the prospects of the bill.

Mr. Berrien denied any such object.

After a short executive session, the Senate adjourned.

House.—The debate was on the question of disposing of the public domain, and was carried on by Messrs. Vinton, Evans, Holmes, and others very spiritedly, but the particulars have not reached us.

Washington, June 19.

Mr. Benton appeared yesterday before the Grand Jury, and made a complaint against Mr. Foote, for attempted assassination in the Senate Chamber. A number of Senators were summoned to day before the Grand Jury.

Re-Baptized.—It is stated by a correspondent of the Wareham and Rochester, that during the past six months the Rev. Baptist Noel Thus Lipscomb (of course by immersion) 100 persons, nearly all of whom were members of his former charge at the Episcopal Chapel in Bedford Row. It may be presumed that all these persons had been baptized in infancy, many of them by Mr. Noel himself."

☞ Cuba was discovered by Columbus in Spaniards 1511, and 1000 persons of by the conquered the mild and peaceable natives to the amount of 5,000,000. The hills are rich in minerals and in some of the rivers there is gold dust. It was ravaged by the British in 1762, and Havana taken, but given up to Spain in 1763.

Exercise to the Pope.—Upon the occasion of escorting the Pope to his chapel at Rome, all the foreign ministers kneeled and kissed his slipper except Mr. Cass, the United States Consul. In reply to the request of the Spanish minister, Mr. Cass stated that as representative of a republican government, he could not kneel to any monarch on earth.

☞ There are just now 340 prisoners incarcerated in the "Egyptian Tombs," in New York, being a larger number than has been known for a long time past. As Children has installed his Egyptian, cannot he pay the Tombs a visit, pick up another princess of Thebes, hatch out some more hieroglyphics, make a Western tour and astonish the natives?

The Accustomed Official Signature of the Secretary of State during the last fifteen months, amounts to the sum of 12,237, besides private letters. Of these signatures 5,197 were for passports alone.

The whole number admitted into the Hartford Retreat on the inebriate, since the opening of the institution in 1824, is over two thousand, of whom more than one thousand have recovered.

"Pray, Mr. Curran," said the Judge, is that hung beef beside you? If it is I will cut it."

"If you try it my lord," replied Mr. Curran, "it's sure to be sung."

A Strange freak of Nature may be seen on an apple tree in Medford, in the yard of Mr. Nathan Childs. Upon a branch of this tree have grown three large white roses. Originally there were five, and what is still more singular, they are all upon a new sprout of this year's growth.—Boston Journal.

Three students at College met an aged countryman, and wishing to have a little sport with him thus accosted him. The first said, 'good morning, father Abraham.' The second, 'good morning father Isaac,' and the third 'good morning, father Jacob.' The old gentleman replied, 'I am neither Abraham, Isaac, nor Jacob; but am Saul the son of Kish, who went to seek his father's asses, and lo! I have found three Chiefs.'

A Gallant Rescue.—A young lady visitor at Fort Hamilton, saved a gentleman's life last week. From the double death of drowning and being crushed. It appears that the gentleman had thrown up a plank to the wharf, and that a gentleman in his entire to God, attempted to walk the plank before the boat was secured. By some motion of the vessel he was thrown into the big dock, and in a moment more, would have been crushed between the boat and the wharf. A young lady standing by—a pretty, courageous, generous and charming young lady—at once leaned over and seized the dripping Bill's fellow by his coat collar, as he floundered in the briny element, and lifted him safely to terra firma. The poor tar, overcome with fear and gratitude, and the cold water he had involuntarily taken down, could only ejaculate, "Lady, dear lady, you have saved my life." This is a singular and somewhat romantic incident in real life, and it may possibly turn out that the end is not yet.

CAUTION.

THE REMARKABLE MEDICINAL POWERS OF

SARSAPARILLA,

Have induced numerous attempts to counterfeit it, and invite fraudulent use of Dr. Townsend's name to secure the sale of SPURIOUS ARTICLES.

The counterfeits and imitations only prove the VALUE of the ORIGINAL and no imitation or COMPLIMENT could be paid to Dr. S. P. Townsend's Extract of Sarsaparilla than the ludicrous efforts they have been made by many to get up something like it. As to the DISHONEST ATTEMPTS that have been made so to use Dr. Townsend's NAME as to create confusion in the public mind in reference to the GENUINE ARTICLE, we publish below A CARD OF ALL THE

Have sold Dr. S. P. Townsend's EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA for several years, and consider it the ORIGINAL and GENUINE Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla, and that it was the first introduced to public notoriety under its name.
